Why Should I be an STC Rochester Leader?

Our chapter is of the most accomplished in all of STC. This is no accident; many people have worked hard to bring benefits to their fellow members over the years. We need YOUR help to continue being a great community!

Here are some ways you can benefit from active involvement in STC Rochester and serving on the leadership council:

- The opportunity to network globally with leading technical communicators
- The opportunity to network face-to-face with local chapter members
- Engagement with high level and challenging thinkers in the technical communications profession that will help sharpen your thinking
- Opportunities for recognition through tech pubs competitions at local and international levels
- The opportunity to be a change agent, and have a positive impact on a close circle of fellow practitioners
- The opportunity to help an organization reinvent itself to keep pace with a changing profession and society
- The opportunity to use your skills and knowledge to mentor others and help them advance in the profession
- The opportunity to forge friendships with a great group of people who face similar challenges
- The opportunity to participate in regional and international conferences
- The opportunity to experience the joys and challenges of casting a shared vision
- The opportunity to learn and practice servant leadership

What Opportunities are Available?

The following elected positions are open for nominations:

- President
- Vice-President/Conference Co-Chairs (two positions)
- Treasurer
- Secretary
- Program Manager (two positions)
- Education Manager
- Membership Manager
- Member at Large (two positions)

The following appointed positions are open for volunteers:

"I believe that the degree of satisfaction you gain from involvement in a professional organization is directly related to the depth of your involvement. One of the most rewarding ways to serve is in leadership."

– Ben Woelk, STC Director at Large and Chair of the Community Affairs Committee
